Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

—See Joseph Reiter's spring styles.
—Additional local on seventh page.
The spring meeting of the driving park promises to be the best in the west this year.

Leave to wed was yesterday given to Reese Boyd, of Harlan, and Louise Cuyling, of Ayres.

Five sealions passed through here by express yesterday, consigned to Charles Richey & Bro., New York.

Everybody should prepare for the races next week. There will be some lively times at the track, and the promise of much fun.

D. S. Brennerman, a paper hanger, is now laid up with a dislocated shoulder, as the result of falling from a step-ladder.

The funeral of Mr. Edwin Togstad took place yesterday forenoon. The Druids, of which order he was a member, turned out in a body, and the services were conducted at the grave in accordance with the ritual of that order, and were very tender and impressive.

The arrangement made for a special train to run over to Omaha each evening for the races will prove a great accommodation to the many who want to attend the meeting next week as it affords an opportunity for them to witness all the events, and yet return home the same night.

The friends of St. Paul's Episcopal church are to socialize this evening at the residence of Mrs. O. M. Brown, the ladies entertaining being Mrs. Dr. Harding, Mrs. Sackett and Mrs. Bobington. Dancing is to begin at 8 o'clock, and strawberries and ice cream will be served.

There was a lively little chapter in the history of a Council Bluffs family, on Tuesday night. The wife suspecting the fidelity of her laggard followed him to another house, and there detected him sitting on the edge of the bed with a woman whom he loved not wisely but too well. The irate wife pounced upon the wayward woman, and for a few minutes there was a lively choking and hair pulling matinee. Arrests are mutually threatened.

In the district court yesterday, much of the time was spent in securing a jury in the Radtgan murder case. Twelve were at last found as follows: G. H. Jones, Spe Millard, C. Roberts, H. P. Niles, O. L. Barrett, E. S. Kentner, R. Morford, A. Wheeler, F. A. Sackett, D. S. Starr, W. Robinson, U. McMenamy. District Attorney Connor is prosecuting the case, while the defendant has as his attorneys Col. Dailey, Robert Percival and Finley Burke.

Kelley & Grow have removed their intelligence office to the corner of Broadway and Bancroft streets, next door to J. W. Lasing's.

Call at Harkness Brothers for the new Domestic Catalogue, just received.

To Contractors and Builders.
Those who wish to bid on the foundation and basement of the new Catholic church are requested to meet the architect, Mr. McNamara, this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Father McMenamy, where an opportunity will be given for the architect to explain the plans and get other needed information.

Harkness Brothers' stock of carpets is kept full by frequent arrivals fresh from the loom. Best of goods and lowest prices.

PERSONAL.

Miss Maggie Liddell, who has been spending some time in this city, visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. Wood, left on yesterday for her home in Salt Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Wood, on Monday evening, entertained about fifty friends in their home, and thus gave an opportunity to bid her good-bye. She has made many new friends during her stay here, as well as afforded pleasure to the old ones, and all regret to have her depart.

Dr. G. P. Hanawalt, of Des Moines, is serving in the capacity of secretary of the meeting of the medical society, and the representatives of the press find him so courteous as to merit special mention.

H. R. Persenger, city editor of The Iowa State Register, of Des Moines, was in this city yesterday, on his way to Central City, Neb., to visit his brother there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tulley have gone east for a pleasure trip, intending to visit New York, Philadelphia, and other cities.

M. L. Hialop, of Oakland, and a constant reader of THE BEE, was in the city yesterday.

Chief Templeton, of the fire department, is suffering from a touch of malaria.

W. M. Carille, of Missouri Valley, was in the Bluffs yesterday.

Frank Arthur, of Baltimore, was at the Ogden yesterday.

*Revelation suggests the idea that from Woman comes the power to "bruise the serpents head." The words take a new meaning to-day since this is precisely what Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies do for the physically diseased patient. Her Vegetable Compound reaches the ultimate sources of the evil. Its action is gentle and non-toxic, but it is more powerful than the club of Hercules.

SHOPLIFTERS LIFTED.

Two Arrested and a Large Amount of Stolen Goods Recovered.

A Systematic Raid on Several Stores and Shops.

A man named Walt Williams and a youth calling himself Charlie Smith, but whose real name is Earnest Kellerstrass, have been arrested on the charge of shoplifting, and the details of the charges which they are to meet indicate that the pair have been quite systematic and successful in pillaging stores.

Both the prisoners have been working in a bakery here for some time. Williams is said to be the solid man of Saddle Roberts, who keeps a house on Washington avenue. The youth says he came here from Peoria, Ill., and acknowledges that he left that place under a cloud. It appears from his story that he stole $8 there, and then, by advice of his mother, skipped out for the west, with intention of no only getting out of the pending trouble, but to build up a new and better reputation for himself under another name.

George Edgar, who lately resigned his position on the police force, is entitled to the credit of working up the case and has certainly shown some clever detective work. He found that a large amount of various goods had been taken to the house of the Roberts' woman, and he there recovered a goodly amount. Among the property found was one piece of satin, worth about $40 and which had been lifted from J. W. Lasing's dry goods store. There were also several pieces of lace, one of 36 yards, taken from J. R. Davidson's store, valued at $18.

A piece of dress goods was recovered which was stolen from Sechler & Gavin. There were also two pieces of cashmere recovered, and a piece of satin worth about $15 from Harkness Brothers. There was a whole bolt of cloth which had been carried off bodily from Snow & Co.'s store, and two bottles of lemon extract from Osborne's grocery store. How many other goods have been taken there is no way of knowing.

The boy on being interrogated by Edgar was quite communicative. He admitted that he had done none of the lifting, but that his part was to do the talking, and keep the storekeeper's attention diverted, while Williams sneaked the goods. Williams, on the other hand, claims that the boy did the stealing and that he only helped him to get the stuff to the house. He kept urging the boy to take it away, fearing that there was something wrong about it, and trouble would follow.

The stealing of the goods must have been adroitly done, as in some cases quite burdensome bundles, and not easily secreted, were carried off. Informations were filed yesterday on two of the fattest takes, so that if convicted, the prisoners will have to suffer penitentiary confinement as a penalty.

Mr. Edgar has shown in this matter, as in some other cases he has handled, some shrewd detective work, and certainly deserves a long credit mark.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Council Bluffs is to furnish Sioux City a Strong Firm.

Arrangements have now been completed by which two of Council Bluffs' best known and most reliable citizens are to embark in business together at Sioux City, under the firm name of Ford Kelth, who are to engage there in the loan and real estate business.

Mr. F. E. Ford, the senior member of the firm, is widely known throughout this part of the west by the reputation gained by his list factory and by his personal acquaintance. He has resided in this city about seven years, and his character and well known business habits are such to inspire the greatest public confidence in his integrity and ability. He will not leave the city, probably, until August or September, business here requiring his attention until that time.

Mr. J. H. Kelth, the other member of the firm, is so well and favorably known that little need be said in his favor. He has for eight years been connected with Barnham, Tulleys & Co., of this city, and so small share of their success and good name is due to him. Being thoroughly experienced in every detail of the business, and having a large personal acquaintance with men and property throughout the territory in which the firm will naturally do business, as well as a large acquaintance and a good name among eastern capitalists, he will prove a strong member of the firm. He enters at once upon his residence and the active business in Sioux City, the firm having its office fitted up and the other arrangements completed.

Mr. E. E. Westervelt, who has lived here for years, also goes to Sioux City, as the firm's bookkeeper and accountant, a position in which few can be found who are his equals. He has of late been in the office of the B. & M. railway, and before that with Smith & Crittenden, and business and social circles here will miss him.

The new firm commanding an abundance of capital and having acquaintance and experience, cannot but succeed in the thriving city where they are to locate, and the Sioux City folk will find these gentlemen to be valuable additions to their social as well as business circles.

Resolutions of Sympathy.
At a meeting of Pottawattamie Grove No. 23, United Ancient Order of Druids held yesterday afternoon, a committee was appointed to prepare resolutions appropriate to the death of their brother Edwin Togstad. The committee have prepared the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the All Wise Ruler of the Universe to take from us by death our dear brother Druid, Edwin Togstad, and

WHEREAS, Pottawattamie Grove No. 23, U. A. O. D., will never more enjoy his genial face in its sessions, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That our heartfelt sympathy is hereby extended to his bereaved relatives and friends, and that a vote of thanks of the Grove be returned to the Pythian lodges of this city for the kindness shown our late brother in his burial. Be it further

RESOLVED, That the charter and Grove rooms be draped in mourning for thirty days as an additional expression of our grief, and that these resolutions be published in THE BEE, Nonpareil and Globe, and an engraved copy presented to the relatives of the deceased under the seal of the Grove.

W. R. VAUGHAN,
EDWIN J. ABBOTT,
JAS. A. HERALD,
Committee.

SKILL IN THE WORKSHOP.—To do good work the mechanic must have good health. If long hours of confinement in close rooms have enfeebled his hand or dimmed his sight, let him at once, and before some organic trouble appears, take plenty of Hop Bitters. His system will be reinvigorated, his nerves strengthened, his sight become clear, and the whole constitution be built up to a higher working condition.

STOCK.

One of the substantial institutions is the Mercantile National Bank of New York.

Investigation into the matter convinces that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Penke; secretary, L. R. Boory; treasurer, Col. Beebe, and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street.
